MESSAGE FROM FR. MANO

In 2010, when I arrived in our country, Fr. Don Meuret took me from the diocesan center (La Crosse) to Marshfield. He was the pastor at Our Lady of Peace. While driving with him, he was explaining about his parish. I asked him when the parish festival was. He started to explain the fall festival. I asked him if it was their only parish festival. He asked me what I meant about the parish festival.

In India, the Parish festival is celebrated based on the patron saint of the parish church. (Our parish patron saint is St. Joseph). Ten days before the feast day of the Saint, there will be a flag raising in the parish church. The flag will have a picture of the patron saint. Every day there will be a Mass in the evening, and it will be well attended. Guest Priests will come to preach every day. On the ninth day, the Bishop will be invited for the Feast Day Mass. After the Mass, there will be a car procession with the Statue of the Patron saint. The car procession goes to the streets where mostly Hindus and Muslims pay their homages and offer their contributions. The Tenth day with the Eucharistic Adoration, the flag will be brought down.

Those ten days, the priests will be preaching more about their parish patron saints so people have more opportunities every year to learn about those Holy Saints. This week on March 19th we solemnize Saint Joseph, husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In European countries, the day is observed as 'the Day of the Father.' Joseph was a righteous man. The Greek word that is used here, dikaiousune, refers to righteousness that comes from obedience or faithfulness to the law. Joseph's righteousness exceeds that of the law. He goes beyond the Mosaic law, which validated the stoning of the woman pregnant out of wedlock. Joseph's righteousness is based on mercy.

Our righteousness must depend on our relationship with God. When it depends on God, it will count not on one's good works but on God's mercy. We, who receive mercy from God, must show it to others, especially to those who are helpless. In the eyes of Joseph, Mary was helpless when seen in the light of Mosaic Law.

We may have a goal or plan for our lives, but God has a purpose for us that is big, beautiful, and pleasing. Joseph, who awoke from sleep, sets aside his plan and embraces God's purpose. This type of awakening is necessary for us. Moreover, Joseph responds to God's purpose not through words but through action. From now on, he has to constantly set aside his plan and embrace that of God. Joseph will continue to respond through immediate action. Today we are beset with words. Let us reduce the words and improve the actions. St. Joseph pray for us.

ST. JOSEPH SCHOOL

St. Joe's students and staff will be on spring break from March 17th - 21st. We hope everyone enjoys a well-deserved time of rest and relaxation! When we return the next week, refreshed and recharged, we will embark on the final nine weeks of the 2024-2025 school year, ready to finish strong!

St. Joseph School will not be hosting a gala this spring. While we look forward to rescheduling this important event in the future, we are excited to share another meaningful opportunity to support our school: Our annual Walk for Virtues fundraiser. Walk for Virtues is a key fundraising event for our school, where students and families walk along the Red Cedar Trail in Menomonie to embody and celebrate the virtues of Faith, Hope, Charity, Prudence, Justice, Fortitude, and Temperance, which our students learn about and practice throughout the year.

In the coming weeks, there will be several ways to support this important fundraiser. Please know that any amount pledged or donated is truly appreciated!

- St. Joseph School families will be collecting pledges from family and friends.
- A Walk for Virtues Sponsor Bulletin Board will be displayed in the main entrance of the church. This provides an opportunity for parishioners and others who may not be directly asked to sponsor a student to contribute to the event and support our school.

Stay tuned for future updates in the bulletin.

We are grateful for your generosity and continued support of St. Joseph School!

God bless your week, Mrs. Mary Kiefer, Principal

Stations of the Cross Pilgrimage

During Lent, in Fr. Mano's town of Sivakasi, Catholics undertake a pilgrimage on foot to different parishes, reflecting on a station of the cross at each church. To uphold this tradition, while limiting the pilgrimage to half a day, St. Joseph's Church, along with other churches in the Durand Deanery, will visit various parishes over the next four years.

We invite you to join Fr. Mano for a pilgrimage to Eau Galle, Elmwood, Spring Valley, and Menomonie on this meaningful journey of prayer. We will gather at St. Joseph Church at 7:45 AM, and maps along with handouts will be provided.

Itinerary for the Day:

1. Opening Prayer at St. Joseph Church.
2. Travel to St. Henry Church in Eau Galle to meditate on the first five Stations of the Cross.
3. Proceed to Sacred Heart Church in Elmwood to reflect on the next five Stations of the Cross.
4. Continue to Sacred Heart Church in Spring Valley to contemplate the final four Stations of the Cross.
5. Return to St. Joseph Church in Menomonie for a pizza lunch. There will be opportunities to tour each church at every stop.

This Lent, let's dedicate our time to Jesus as we come together in prayer as a community.

If you can help those who need transportation, please contact Nicki or Tammy at the parish center.

APOCALYPSE NOW?

PREPARING FOR THE END TIMES WITH FAITH AND HOPE

MARCH 25-27, 2025
ST. JOSEPH, MENOMONIE, WI

Curious about what the Bible says about the end of the world, and not just a Hollywood depiction? Join us for a three-day Lenten Mission series on the Catholic understanding of the End Times and the Book of Revelation. In this engaging, easy-to-follow series, we'll break down what Jesus actually taught about His Second Coming, what the Catholic Church believes about the Apocalypse, and why the Book of Revelation is actually a message of hope, victory, and God's plan for good. Plus, we'll show you how these teachings are relevant for your life today, not just the future. Think of it as your Catholic guide to the End Times — just clear, relatable wisdom with a splash of humor. Don't miss out — no doomsday prep required!

SERIES TOPICS

March 25, 6-7 PM: The End is Near—An Introduction to Eschatology and the End Times

March 26, 6-7 PM: Walking Through the Book of Revelation—A Catholic Interpretation

March 27, 6-7 PM: Living in the Light of the Apocalypse—Hope, Faith, and the Final Judgment

GUEST SPEAKER

Steve Drpalik is a volunteer catechist for the OCIA programs in Menomonie and Chippewa Falls. He holds a Master's degree in Systematic Theology with a minor in Liturgy from St. John's University and has 10+ years of experience working in various campus ministry and faith formation positions, including former Director of Catholic Campus Ministry at UW-Stout. Steve currently lives in Eau Claire with his wife Abigail and works in IT.

JOURNEY TO THE FOOT OF THE CROSS: BISHOP RICKEN OFFERS 10 THINGS TO REMEMBER FOR LENT

Bishop David L. Ricken of Green Bay, Wisconsin, former chairman of the Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), offers “10 Things to Remember for Lent”:

1. Remember the formula. The Church does a good job capturing certain truths with easy-to-remember lists and formulas: 10 Commandments, 7 sacraments, 3 persons in the Trinity. For Lent, the Church gives us almost a slogan—Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving—as the three things we need to work on during the season.

2. It’s a time of prayer. Lent is essentially an act of prayer spread out over 40 days. As we pray, we go on a journey, one that hopefully brings us closer to Christ and leaves us changed by the encounter with him.

3. It’s a time to fast. With the fasts of Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, meatless Fridays, and our personal disciplines interspersed, Lent is the only time many Catholics these days actually fast. And maybe that’s why it gets all the attention. “What are you giving up for Lent? Hot dogs? Beer? Jelly beans?” It’s almost a game for some of us, but fasting is actually a form of penance, which helps us turn away from sin and toward Christ.

4. It’s a time to work on discipline. The 40 days of Lent are also a good, set time to work on personal discipline in general. Instead of giving something up, it can be doing something positive. “I’m going to exercise more. I’m going to pray more. I’m going to be nicer to my family, friends, and coworkers.”

5. It’s about dying to yourself. The more serious side of Lenten discipline is that it’s about more than self-control—it’s about finding aspects of yourself that are less than Christ-like and letting them die. The suffering and death of Christ are foremost on our minds during Lent, and we join in these mysteries by suffering, dying with Christ and being resurrected in a purified form.

6. Don’t do too much. It’s tempting to make Lent some ambitious period of personal reinvention, but it’s best to keep it simple and focused. There’s a reason the Church works on these mysteries year after year. We spend our entire lives growing closer to God. Don’t try to cram it all in one Lent. That’s a recipe for failure.

7. Lent reminds us of our weakness. Of course, even when we set simple goals for ourselves during Lent, we still have trouble keeping them. When we fast, we realize we’re all just one meal away from hunger. In both cases, Lent shows us our weakness. This can be painful, but recognizing how helpless we are makes us seek God’s help with renewed urgency and sincerity.

8. Be patient with yourself. When we’re confronted with our own weakness during Lent, the temptation is to get angry and frustrated. “What a bad person I am!” But that’s the wrong lesson. God is calling us to be patient and to see ourselves as he does, with unconditional love.

9. Reach out in charity. As we experience weakness and suffering during Lent, we should be renewed in our compassion for those who are hungry, suffering, or otherwise in need. The third part of the Lenten formula is almsgiving. It’s about more than throwing a few extra dollars in the collection plate; it’s about reaching out to others and helping them without question as a way of sharing the experience of God’s unconditional love.

10. Learn to love like Christ. Giving of ourselves in the midst of our suffering and self-denial brings us closer to loving like Christ, who suffered and poured himself out unconditionally on the Cross for all of us. Lent is a journey through the desert to the foot of the Cross on Good Friday, as we seek him out, ask his help, join in his suffering, and learn to love like him.
